

The Women's Studies Programme on the Sir George Williams Campus of Concordia University presents a Friday evening lecture series in the Hall Building on:

Sexual Inequality.

WHY?

FEBRUARY 7

Sexploitation in the Quebec Labour Market

A panel discussion by:

Laurette Robillard — Présidente, Conseil du Statut de la Femme-Quebec

Caroline Pesteau — Vice-Présidente, Conseil du Statut de la Femme-Quebec

Monique Simard — "Conseiller Syndicale" CNTU

Room H-620 8:30 p.m.

FEBRUARY 14

Sex Differences in Behavior — Some re-interpretations

Olga Favreau — Dept. of Psychology, Université de Montréal

Room H-620 8:30 p.m.

FEBRUARY 21

Historians' Women: A Neglected Side of an Honourable Discipline

Naomi Griffiths — Dept. of History, Carleton University

Room H-620 8:30 p.m.

FEBRUARY 28

The Politics of Rape

Lorenne Clark — Dept. of Philosophy, University of Toronto

Room H-620 8:30 p.m.

(sponsored jointly with the SGW Philosophy Club)

MARCH 7

Can there be a female Michelangelo?

A panel discussion by women on their experience as artists.

Room H-620 8:30 p.m.

MARCH 14

The Origins of Sex Inequality?

A Comparison and Critique of Theories

Margrit Eichler — Dept. of Sociology, University of Waterloo

Room: H-620 8:30 p.m.

MARCH 21

Initiatives in Labour by the Federal Government

Sylva Gelber — Director, Women's Branch, Dept. of Labour

Room H-620 8:30 p.m.

APRIL 4

The Single-Parent Family

A panel discussion by executives and ordinary members of the Federal Advisory Council on the Status of Women

Room H-620 8:30 p.m.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, CALL:
CENTRE FOR INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES 879-4042

